Attempted escape of a remand prisoner at Kira Court

The Judiciary Management has learnt of an incident that occurred at Kira Chief Magistrate's Court today (July 19, 2024), of an attempted escape of an accused person who appeared at the Court for the mention of his case.

During the incident, the prisoner unfortunately injured a court orderly in the eye before jumping over the court's perimeter wall.

With the combined efforts of the Police and Prisons forces, the prisoner was subdued and subsequently re-arrested.

The Chief Registrar, Her Worship Sarah Langa Siu has implored members of the public to stay calm as Police continues with its investigations into the matter.
