The Petitioner has consistently been the children's sole provider, meeting their education, healthcare, maintenance and general welfare needs. She lawfully resides abroad and is permitted to have dependants. The children currently live with an elderly and frail caregiver who can no longer adequately care for them. Their biological father has expressly consented to the Petitioner assuming sole parental responsibility and relocating them. The orders sought are therefore necessary and in the children's best interests and welfare.	Hearing	Chambers F 3 - Family Division
